Additional input: BROMANCE 😊

- BROther roMANCE = a close, emotionally intense, non-sexual bond between men.
- It is an very tight affectional, homosocial male bonding relationship that exceeds that of usual friendship, distinguished by a high level of emotional intimacy.
- The concept emerges since the beginning of the 21st century and is in line with the increasing openness of the Western society to reconsider gender, sexuality and exclusivity constraints. This openness is the result of the latest neurobiological research and evolutions is human sciences.
